INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING A VEHICLE VALUE COMMISSION APPEAL FORM

1. An appeal must be filed with your local tax assessor within forty-five (45) days of the mailing of your tax bill.
2. Two (2) copies of the appeal form must be submitted, along with a copy of the tax bill.
3. After the appeal form has been completed, and a copy of the tax bill attached, it must be returned to the Barrington Tax Assessor's Office (283 County Road, Barrington RI 02806). The Tax Assessor will verify if the value was indeed set by the Rhode Island Vehicle Value Commission and complete the portion of the form that applies. (See note below).
4. Appeal forms are then submitted to the Rhode Island Vehicle Value Commission by the Tax Assessor. The Commission will notify the Tax Assessor of their decision within twenty (20) days. The Tax Assessor must in turn notify the taxpayer within ten (10) days of the receipt of the Rhode Island Vehicle Value Commission's decision.

PLEASE NOTE:

- * Only values set by the Rhode Island Vehicle Value Commission can be appealed to said Rhode Island Vehicle Value Commission. If the value was set by the Tax Assessor, the appeal must be handled at the municipal level. Any appeals forwarded to the Rhode Island Vehicle Value Commission for values that were not set by that Rhode Island Vehicle Value Commission will be returned unanswered.
- * Under the General Laws of the State of Rhode Island, section 44-34-11, there are NO provisions to permit adjustment of excise value due to physical condition, high mileage, and/or the cost of acquisition. Therefore, no value adjustment will be made for any of those reasons.
- * The Tax Assessor may adjust for a diesel engine
- * During the appeal process, taxes must be paid within the time designated by the Town of Barrington.
