Article II

Tax Exemption for the Elderly and Totally Disabled

* * *

§ 169-8. Form of Application; time of submission

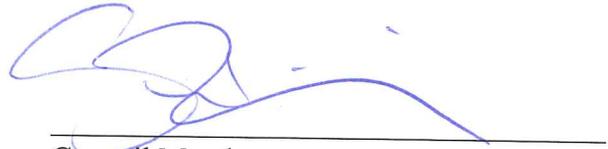

* * *

B. All applications regarding tax exemption for the elderly pursuant to this Article shall be filed in the office of the Assessor on or before October 31 for the ensuing year. All applications regarding tax exemption for the totally disabled pursuant to this Article shall be filed in the office of the Assessor on or before March 31 of any year. The Assessor may extend the time for filing by any person when in the reasonable opinion of the Assessor the failure to file by said date was not the result of any fault of the applicant. The Assessor shall give each applicant written notice of his/her decision no later than April 30 for the ensuing fiscal year. ~~not more than 75 days after such application has been filed.~~

C. Notwithstanding the foregoing subsection B, for fiscal year ending June 30, 2019 applications regarding tax exemption for the elderly for which there is no income limitation shall be filed in the office of the Assessor on or before March 1, 2018.
